

Chief Financial Officers Conference

Council of the Great City Schools

Under the rubric, Managing for Results, the meeting will focus on how districts can produce better results to regain the public's confidence in a highly compliant and regulatory environment which has been exacerbated by an economic downturn. The meeting is structured as working sessions that focus on issues that this year will include, but not limited to--

- > Sustainability after ARRA, SIG, RTTT and during sequestration
- > Changing Workforce: the cultural divide between employees who are new, very talented, younger and strong, committed career employees
- > Implementing the Affordable Care Act (*)
- > Risk Managing Charter Schools
- > Deferred and Preventive Maintenance: Cost Consequences
- > Enterprise-Wide Governance (*)
- > Metrics, Benchmarking and Performance Management
- > Disaster Recovery, Contingency and Business Continuity Planning (*)
- > Business Intelligence and Data-Driven Decisions
- > Financing different instructional models, e.g. blended learning, digital conversion, 1:1
- > Rebooting districts in an economic recovery period
