The screenshot shows the website for the Council of the Great City Schools. The header includes the organization's name, tagline "THE NATION'S VOICE FOR URBAN EDUCATION", and social media icons for Twitter, Contact Us, Jobs Board, and Calendar. A navigation menu lists: ABOUT THE COUNCIL, MEMBER SERVICES, NEWSROOM, PUBLICATIONS, RESEARCH, ACADEMICS, LEGISLATIVE, and CONFERENCES. The main content area is titled "Green-Garner Award" and includes a breadcrumb trail: Home > About the Council > Awards and Scholarships > Green-Garner Award. A sidebar on the left lists various awards and scholarships, with "Green-Garner Award" highlighted. The main text describes the award as the nation's highest urban education honor, named in memory of Richard R. Green and Edward Garner. It mentions that the award is sponsored by the Council, ARAMARK Education and Scholastic, Inc., and is the namesake of the first African American chancellor of the New York City school system and a businessman and former school board president of the Denver Public Schools, respectively. A photo of Felton Williams is shown, with text stating he is the 2017 winner. Below the photo is a caption: "Felton Williams accepts the Green-Garner award at the Council's 61st Annual Fall Conference in Cleveland in 2017." A link to "the press release" is also provided.

THE THIRTIETH ANNUAL GREEN-GARNER AWARD PROGRAM

The Council of the Great City Schools is committed to recognizing and supporting outstanding leadership in urban education in honor of Richard R. Green and Edward Garner.

The Council of the Great City Schools is pleased to join with Aramark K-12 Education, Scholastic and Cenergistic in sponsoring the annual Green-Garner Award in Urban Education. This year's award is dedicated to honoring one of our school board members. Next year's award will spotlight one of our superintendents. The honor has been named for our outstanding colleagues and friends—Richard Green, the former Chancellor of the New York City Public Schools and former Superintendent of the Minneapolis Public Schools, and Edward Garner, the former School Board President of Denver Public Schools. This award will be presented at the 63rd Annual Fall Conference of the Council of the Great City Schools in Louisville, KY.

Urban education has been blessed with many dedicated and talented individuals. School board members who will be nominated will have helped spearhead the comeback and progress of the nation's urban schools. These remarkable individuals have worked tirelessly on behalf of our very special children.

Michael Casserly, Executive Director
Council of the Great City Schools
