Who Should Attend?

• Urban School Superintendents
• School Board Members
• Senior School District Administrators
• Deans of Colleges of Education

The Council of the Great City Schools brings together the nation’s largest urban public school systems in a coalition dedicated to the improvement of education for children in the inner cities. The Council and its 77 member school districts work to help our schoolchildren meet the highest standards and become successful and productive members of society.

What’s Included in Your Registration?

• Participation in the nation’s premier conference on model programs and reforms that work in urban schools
• Keynote speakers
• Breakout sessions on urban school achievement, professional development, leadership and governance, finance, males of color, bilingual, immigrant & refugee issues, and others
• All scheduled meals (breakfast, lunch, coffee service, reception/dinner)
• Resource area with member-district, non profit organizations and educational companies’ material on what works in urban education
• Newly published Council reports
• Networking with the nation’s leading urban school superintendents, school board members, college of education deans, research directors, legislative directors and others
• Awards banquet
• Transportation to and from off-site evening events
• Conference bag and gift items
