SPONSOR AGREEMENT FORM

This legally binds your organization with this commitment

The Council of the Great City Schools brings together 76 of the nation's largest urban public-school districts in a coalition dedicated to the improvement of education for children in the inner cities. The Council is a 501(c)3 organization and all contributions made to the Council are tax exempt.

The Council will convene its annual meeting of Chief Financial Officers, Budget Directors, Procurement Directors, Internal Auditors and Risk Managers in its member districts, November 12-15 in Austin, Texas.

Under the rubric, – "Accounting for Results in America's Large City School Districts"- the meeting invites thought leaders from sponsoring organizations to actively participate in work sessions, presentations and panels that focus on topics that will help member districts become more efficient and effective in budgeting, managing, and evaluating their spending across competing priorities. There will be special interest knowing how enterprise resource (ERP), performance management (EPM) and business automation software and service solutions; business intelligence and advanced analytics; change management methodologies; accounting systems and other tools that can connect budget decisions to outcomes. The meeting also will provide ample networking opportunities and "face time" with key decision makers in these districts.
