Curriculum Associates®

2023 Valeria Silva Award for Outstanding Contributions to English Learner Achievement

The Council of the Great City Schools and Curriculum Associates are proud to present an award to an outstanding district administrator or school principal who has made significant and lasting contributions to improve the academic achievement for English learners (ELs) in a Council-member school district. The award and special recognition will be presented at the Council's 2023 Bilingual, Immigrant, and Refugee Education (BIRE) Meeting in Greensboro, NC.

Prize:

- $1,000 award from Curriculum Associates
- Four-night stay at the Greensboro-High Point Marriott Airport Hotel during the 2023 BIRE Meeting
- Reimbursement for round trip coach air travel to the 2023 BIRE Meeting
- Free registration to the 2023 BIRE Meeting

Eligibility and Guidelines:

- The nominee must be from an active member district of the Council of the Great City Schools.
- The nominee must attend the 2023 BIRE Meeting. (Nominations must include confirmation of BIRE Meeting registration.)
- A nominee may nominate himself/herself for the award.
- The nominee must be employed as a central office administrator or principal by a member school district on the date of the award presentation and must be working with ELs for at least three years.
 - » The exact title of education administrators responsible for EL instructional programs greatly varies across school districts — executive directors, directors, coordinators, program supervisors, assistant or associate superintendents, etc.
- The nomination materials must include letters of recommendation from no more than three stakeholders.
- Nomination forms and supporting materials must be submitted online by 11:59 PM EDT on Friday, April 7, 2023.

Nomination Package Considerations:

- Quantitative evidence of increased EL achievement related to the program improvements and initiatives implemented by the nominee
- Examples of collaborative efforts within the district to institutionalize improvements to EL programs and improve cross-departmental work on behalf of ELs
- Descriptions of effective implementation of innovative programs to address critical needs of the EL community in a Council-member school district

About the Council

The Council of the Great City Schools is the only national organization exclusively representing the needs of urban public schools. Composed of 78 large city school districts, its mission is to promote the cause of urban schools and to advocate for inner-city students through legislation, research and media relations. The organization also provides a network for school districts sharing common problems to exchange information, and to collectively address new challenges as they emerge in order to deliver the best possible education for urban youth.
