

MILWAUKEE
PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Supporting School-Age Parents through Equitable Practices

October 21, 2022

Dr. Keith P. Posley
Superintendent

Presenters:

Meredith Welch, MSW, APSW, Program Supervisor
Travis Pinter, Ed.S., Senior Director, Specialized Services

Five Priorities for Success

Milwaukee Public Schools

Diversity is our strength!

- 68,435 students
- 156 schools
- 13.8% English language learners
- 19.6% special education
- 75.2% economically disadvantaged*

What Is It?

---

The Pregnant and Parenting Youth Program (PPYP) is a voluntary program for school-age parents that is designed to provide resources and services to promote successful outcomes for students with regard to academics, health/wellness, and social-emotional functioning.

What Are Our Goals?

---

- Increase attendance and graduation rates
- Increase teen enrollment in higher education
- Increase knowledge of effective parenting practices
- Increase knowledge of and practices in healthy relationships
- Enhance coordination of school and community services

The Process

SAP Data

2020–21

School-Age Parents (2020–21)

2021–22

School-Age Parents (2021–22)

Success Data

Success Data

2020-21

2021-22

MILWAUKEE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Thank You!