The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying "www.cgcs.org" and the page title "Awards and Scholarships / Green-Garner Award". The website header features the Council of the Great City Schools logo and tagline "The Nation's Voice for Urban Education". A navigation menu includes links for Home, About the Council, Member Services, Newsroom, Publications, Research, Academics, Legislative, and Conferences. A sidebar on the left lists various awards and scholarships, with "Green-Garner Award" selected. The main content area is titled "Green-Garner Award" and includes a description of the award, a photo of a man in a suit, and a photo of two men in suits. The text describes the award as the nation's highest urban education honor, presented annually at the Council's Fall Conference. It also mentions that the 2015 award was presented to William (Bill) Isler, who has served on the Pittsburgh Board of Public Education for 16 years.

THE TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL GREEN-GARNER AWARD PROGRAM

The Council of the Great City Schools is committed to recognizing and supporting outstanding leadership in urban education in honor of Richard R. Green and Edward Garner.

The Council of the Great City Schools is pleased to join with Aramark K-12 Education and Scholastic in sponsoring the annual Green-Garner Award in Urban Education. This year's award is dedicated to honoring one of our superintendents. Next year's award will spotlight one of our school board members. The honor has been named for our outstanding colleagues and friends—Richard Green, the former Chancellor of the New York City Public Schools and former Superintendent of the Minneapolis Public Schools, and Edward Garner, the former School Board President of Denver Public Schools. This award will be presented at the Annual Conference of the Council of the Great City Schools in Miami, FL.

Urban education has been blessed with many dedicated and talented individuals. Superintendents who will be nominated will have helped spearhead the comeback and progress of the nation's urban schools. These remarkable individuals have worked tirelessly on behalf of our very special children.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

In tribute to the memories of Richard R. Green and Edward Garner, the Council of the Great City Schools, Aramark, and Scholastic, Inc. will annually present an award in their names to a past or present council member superintendent or board of education member. The award rotates annually between superintendents and board members, and winners will be awarded for representing one or more of the ideals and commitments expressed by Richard Green and Edward Garner (see Selection Criteria, page 4).

The 2016 Green-Garner Award winner will be honored at the Annual Conference of the Council of the Great City Schools in Miami, FL and will receive a $10,000 college scholarship to present to a senior in a high school from the winner's school system at the winner's discretion.

All nominees will:

- ★ Have their brief video shown during the conference.
- ★ Receive recognition on stage during the banquet.
- ★ Be guests of honor at a special dinner reception.

The winner will:

- ★ Receive a special Green-Garner Award expressing the history of Dr. Green, Mr. Garner, and the ideals they cherished.
- ★ Be the guest of honor at a reception and banquet where the award will be presented.
- ★ Receive nationwide recognition in the news and various trade media, as well as a special profile in the Council of the Great City Schools newsletter, Urban Educator.

William Isler, 2015 award winner from the Pittsburgh School Board, holds his Green-Garner Award.

Terry Grier, Superintendent from Houston Independent School District, holds his $10,000 oversized check and is congratulated by Aramark's Gwen High.
