Salary Range - $90,093 - $107,576

Portland Public Schools (PPS) is seeking talented people from diverse backgrounds and experiences to lead change and inspire PPS students. At PPS, every employee, despite having different roles, is an educator. We hope to attract a talented District and Family Liaison who models the core PPS Educator Essentials and is committed to resolving concerns from all of the school system constituents in support of every student achieving academic success and social-emotional well-being.

To achieve our vision, we want someone who has a demonstrated commitment to building relationships with multiple stakeholders, and the experience to authentically engage with families and school communities to resolve concerns in an equitable and consistent manner. The liaison will be tasked with working with school administrators to investigate, address, and resolve parent and/or community concerns by acting as a conduit between families and school personnel. We strongly encourage you to apply if you have five or more years in public education or community organizing, experience working with racially and linguistically diverse communities, and possess a Bachelor’s degree in education, social work, or a related field. The District is committed to eliminating systemic racism and its impact on student learning. We seek candidates with a demonstrable commitment to racial equity and social justice.

How to Apply: Visit pps.net/jobs and use job number 21723 to review the full qualifications and full job description.

Preferred Experience

- Demonstrated knowledge of leadership and administrative practices
- Demonstrated experience with conflict resolution strategies or techniques
- Two years as a building administrator or three years of teaching experience
- Knowledge of Public school administration, curriculum, and special education services

First screenings: will occur on December 9, 2020, at 4:00 pm

Cover Letter Request: In your cover letter, please describe your experience(s) in serving families and organizations with a diverse community. Please include a brief description of how you have led or supported families or employees as a conduit or advocate to get their needs met or the support they needed. Additionally, please share why Portland Public Schools is the place for you and your contributions.

Watch This Video: Working in Portland in 2020