The Opportunity

Salary Range $122,048 - $146,878

Portland Public Schools in Portland, Oregon is seeking dynamic School Principals with a demonstrated record of improving student performance and who share our Vision, PPS reimagined. To achieve our vision, we want school leaders who have a commitment to working in a large urban school district and who have a demonstrated ability to develop creative solutions to eliminating achievement disparities. The District is committed to eliminating systemic racism and its impact on student learning. We seek candidates with a demonstrable commitment to racial equity and social justice.

Portland Public Schools envisions every student, every teacher, every school succeeding. If you are solution-oriented, a strong communicator and collaborator, and passionate about urban education, then this is the place for you!

Cover Letter Request: Please include a cover letter to share your demonstrated experiences of the below.

- Why are you an excellent candidate to lead a specific school?
- What experience or special skills will you bring as a new leader to enable the school to meet and surpass its goals?
- Please provide measurable outcomes of what has been your record of student academic achievement.
- What is your experience teaching or leading second language learners?
- What experience have you had influencing adults to achieve significant results for students? (Including but not limited to coaching, mentoring, providing feedback, etc).
- What is your experience working with diverse student populations? (including but not limited to students from racial, ethnic and socio-economic communities).

How To Apply: Visit pps.net/jobs and use job number #21790 to review the full qualifications.

Watch This Video: Working in Portland in 2020

Screenings will occur until closing of the application date on March 1, 2021.