

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Job Title: Director of Accounting

Salary: $121,900 – $151,000 annually

About the Role:

The Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) is seeking a Director of Accounting to lead a team of financial professionals working on innovative and front-line public-sector accounting projects. The Director of Accounting will direct the implementation and streamlining of operational accounting processes and procedures and oversee accounting activities involved in analyzing and applying accounting pronouncements, financial data, laws, and regulations while ensuring fiduciary compliance.

The Division of Accounting and Disbursements is a talented and highly committed team dedicated to providing excellent customer service and fulfilling the fiduciary responsibility to ensure that public funds for the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) are appropriately disbursed, accounted for, and reported.

The ideal candidate is a licensed CPA with experience providing public sector accounting management, work oversight, direction, and long-term planning for a large governmental organization. A strong communicator, able to build relationships and inform and interact with various stakeholders such as the Superintendent, Board of Education members and staff, executive staff, school staff, various organizational departments, and the public is highly desired.

Qualifications:

Graduation from a recognized college or university with a bachelor's degree in accounting, business administration, finance, economics, public administration, auditing, or a related field. CPA license is preferable. Five years of professional experience in accounting, process documentation and review, internal control activities, management or analysis of financial activities, or auditing activities, including three years of supervisory experience desired.

Perks:

- District paid premiums of several medical, dental, and vision plan options for employee and dependents, as well as life insurance plans
- Membership in the California Public Employee Retirement System (CalPERS)
- Vacation: 24 days per year / Paid holidays: 12 days
