Assistant Director of Instruction & School Communities

How To Apply: Please visit https://www.pps.net/jobs and use job number 26683 to access the full job description and apply.

Salary: $127,772 - $137,597 per year | 260 day work year
Remote Work Eligibility: Ad-hoc

Portland Public Schools (PPS) is actively seeking an Assistant Director of Instruction & School Communities who is a proven leader, strategic thinker with a strong foundation and vision for instruction and curriculum development as well as the managing and monitoring of data to yield positive outcomes for students.

The Assistant Director of Instruction & School Communities to provide leadership to the Instruction and School Communities (ISC) division; develop, implement, monitor and evaluation operational and/or instructional vision and focused plans; manage operational support activities; advance the district goals for improving student achievement, increasing equity, improving access to quality programs for traditionally underserved populations and assuring all schools are safe, inclusive places that promote excellence for all students; provide strategic consultation to the Deputy Superintendent regarding all offices within ISC; anticipate and respond to emerging needs across the ISC division; serve as a communication liaison with external agencies including the Oregon Department of Education, PPS executive leaders, ISC leadership, building leaders, and operational departments.

With the District’s focus on eliminating systemic racism and its adverse impact on student learning, we seek to hire individuals who bring to our district a deep commitment to racial equity and social justice.

To learn more about Portland Public Schools, please check out our profile at https://www.themuse.com/profiles/portlandpublicschools.

Minimum Qualifications:
- A State of Oregon issued Administrative License is required at the time of appointment.
- A minimum of five (5) years as a licensed school professional including a minimum of three (3) years of experience as a PK-12 school-based administrator, Principal level preferred, with demonstrated results in improving the academic performance of students is required.

- Any other combination of education and experience that would likely provide the required knowledge and abilities may be considered.